Why a newsletter?

Not everyone visits our website (shame on you) or our Facebook and Twitter pages. So, in an effort to keep as many as possible up to date on what the campaign is doing, we send a good old fashioned newsletter.

Keep Up With Us

Cookout for Carr Fundraiser

Everyone had a great time at Shannon and Matt Hyatt's on Sunday, August 31st. The Cookout for Carr was a success: great food, great conversation and great times! If you're interested in hosting a Cookout for Carr fundraiser, let us know at info@jamescarrforcongress.org

Gordonsville Volunteer Fire Department Parade

James and Team Carr will be at the Gordonsville Volunteer Fire Company Parade on September 3rd. Come out and say hi!

Gordonsville Parade

Interview at Randolph Macon College

James will be interviewed by Bennie Ashton, Editor for Politics/Opinions in the Randolph Macon College Newspaper, The Yellow Jacket.

We're on the other candidates' home turf! If you'd like to volunteer some time to help Team Carr hand out information, stickers and handbills please let us know at

Request for Donations or Fundraisers

It's our least favorite part of running a campaign and the least favorite part of being engaged by a campaign for most, but it's an ugly truth that has to be taken seriously. We lack the deep pockets of the Republicans and Democrats.

Every event we attend, every lawn sign we give out, every bumpersticker...everything...costs money. If you can make a donation, please click Donations to go to our help page. If you'd like to set up a fundraiser, be it a Cookout for Carr or something of your own devising, let us know at info@jamescarrforcongress.org
